

Mark Worthington

Executive Coach

Mark had over 37 years, working as a Senior Finance Executive, primarily in the Financial Services Industry in Australia and the United Kingdom.

He is a former Partner of KPMG, CFO/CRO of multiple large organizations, and was the Group-wide Audit Executive of CBA for over nine years. He has also led teams in operational areas such as Property, Strategy, Legal, Acquisitions and Investments.

In recent years he has published five groundbreaking books on human relationships, including one on advanced leadership principles and strategies to improve corporate cultures.

Mark is the CEO of Mark Worthington Pty Limited. From within his own business, he provides, coaching, book production, professional speaking and culture consulting services.

He is a highly intuitive operator who understands the dynamics of modern business environments, including the workings of Boards and Executive teams.

Mark is a down-to-earth person who communicates with clarity and empathy, and is passionate about helping people live and work with higher levels of success and fulfilment.

Mark lives in Sydney, Australia.

Coaching Experience

- Experience in coaching in the Banking, IT and Finance fields
- Career success in coaching executives in his teams to greater success and higher roles
- Experience in advising and coaching on cultural turnarounds
- Experience in life coaching, including relationship dynamics
- Expert in the enhancement of human performance

EXPERTISE / SPECIALISATIONS

Finance
Audit/Risk Management
Board Activities
Strategy/Operational Planning
Process Improvement
Cultural Improvement
Leadership
Human Relationships

BUSINESS EXPERIENCES

External Audit and Advisory-
KPMG

Financial Services (Banking,
Insurance, Superannuation, funds
Management and Investments)

CEO of own business

EDUCATION/BUSINESS COACHING

Member, Institute of Chartered
Accountants in Australia and New Zealand

B.Comm (Finance and Systems)
With Merit UNSW

